

CORMACH NEWS N°15 OF MAY, 17th 2011

Ligro

Taking a look at the origins and at the traditional features, Cormach has traced other ones to create the perfect union between present and future, the Ligro.

Ligro faces directly the new modern system of mounting and demounting wheels, eliminating the use of the traditional lever and the consequent physical effort.

Combining traditional and modern know-how we offer a solution that ensures functionality.
